

He Will Lead You Safely O'er
Randy Swift 3/25/06

In the Bible it is written "whosoever will" can go.
Jesus stands at your heart knocking; will you tell him yes or no?

Children give your heart to Jesus
Don't wait till time shall be no more
In his arms he'll save and keep you
He will lead you safely o'er

I have loved ones in my family who are not yet in the fold
Many years I've labored with them, in hopes someday the Lord they'll know

Now if you're lost on life's ocean, struggling just to live everyday
There's a better way of dying, Oh! Wont you hear the words I say?
