

COVER UP SCAM

BY: Randy Swift

When God put man in the garden we had it all
Till the tempter came by and he caused mankind to fall
So Adam & Eve sewed a few fig leaves to try and cover up their sin
But they could not fool the one who ruled; he knew right where they'd been

Cause you can't pull no cover up scam
He can look right in and see you sin, he is the great I AM
You've gotta get under the covering that's provided by the lamb
You can't pull no cover up scam

God walked through the garden with Adam one last time
And he showed him the devastation of the crime
He wanted Adam to see that a few fig leaves wouldn't cover him and his wife
Then he put them in to the coats of skin that cost a lamb its life

A lotta people still try to get by Adam's way
They still try to wear the fig leaves to this day
Even though they sin they want to fit in so they try and look the part
But they can only cover up the outside cause you know God looks in the heart.
