

The Other Side Of Jordan

On the other side of Jordan just beyond that shining strand
I'll be resting in the beauty of that land
I'll go walking through the garden with that man of Galilee
Who is the master of life's troubled stormy sea!

I'll be waiting in the shadows for that shining angel band
That will come and take me home to that land
On the other side of Jordan they are waiting there I know
And I'm ready; Lord I'm ready now to go.

On the other side of Jordan I have friends I long to see
I have loved ones in that city there waiting me.
They are resting from their labor; they are free from all their cares
They are parted from the burdens of the years.
