

My Eye Is On The Prize

Satan came to me this morning! Spoke without a warning,
Tried to make me quit or compromise!
So I said listen Devil, with you I'm on the level
I can't quit my eye is on the prize...

Yeah I've made my decision that I wanted a greater vision
Of that heavenly bridegroom in the sky
So Satan get behind me! One day you wont find me!
I'll be gone my eye is on the prize...

Satan thought he was so smart, tried to come right into my heart
Hey Devil your in for a big surprise
You can come on in like a flood and I'll drown you in Jesus blood
I can't quit my eye is on the prize...
