

SET FREE

By: Randy Swift 1/30/94

A man that they called Legion was holed up in a cave
Tormented by the devil as he lived there day by day
But I hear tell that he got well when Jesus happened by
And when he came out of the cave they all heard Legion cry.

I'm not bound up I've been set free
No more chains holding me
I used to be in bondage till I found liberty.
I'm not bound up; Thank God I'm free

Now if your life is full of strife and all your hope is gone
Remember how Ole' Legion could not make it on his own
Just put your trust in Jesus; The truth, the life & way
And when you do I know that you can stand right up and say.
