

The Rich Man
Randy Swift 10/18/02

One day a rich man came to Jesus
To ask about what must be done.
He said I've heard of a life eternal
And a crown of life that can be won.
But the Lord's reply was unexpected
When the rich man heard him say.
If you want to have it all son
You've got to give it all away.

I would not miss it for the whole world
When that final trumpet blows
When my life on earth has ended
I know right where I want to go
Standing by the wall of jasper
On a street of gold at the gates of pearl
I ain't ever seen nothing like that
I would not miss it for the world.

No I wont sell out for money
A fancy home or a big fine car!
If it cost me my salvation
I'll leave things the way they are.
I'm not willing to take the gamble
To try and find that pot of gold.
For the master said what does it profit
To gain the world and lose your soul!
